THE CREIGHTON MURDER.

Killing of Her Husband, is Found Guilty of Manelaughter-Particulars of the Murder.

CINCINNATI, December 18.—The jury in the Creighton murder case, after a deliberation of twenty-six hours, returned a verdict of manslaughter at twelve to day, which is considered a compromise verdict. The first vote stood four for murder in the first, and eight for murder in the second degree, which was finally changed to ten for acquittal and two for conviction—the latter two holding to the end. The particulars of the murder are substantially these: The second of last Jan-uary, Henry Creighton was found dead in his house by neighbors, aroused by his wife, who confessed to having killed him in selfthere being no witnesses but Eddie Garland, her twelve-year-old son by a former husband. His wife is believed, according to the testimony, to have married his property rather than the man, with whom she lived in On the morning of his death, she says, he had chased her about the house, shooting at her; and, finally, with a broadax, drove her to defend herself, when

Imports Liberal Last Week-Holders Still Refrain from Press-

London, December 18.—The Mark Lane Express's review of the British corn trade: of a disastrous fire and robbery at Salisbury, Chariton county, Missouri, reached here a day again small, and for dry lots a ready sale is experienced, especially for red, at fully the late rates. The imports of foreign wheat into London last week were liberal, in spite of the heavy supplies which consisted mainly of Russian and East Indian descriptions. A Later advices show that it was a much more serious affair than at first supposed. It appears that a gang of negroes robbed the store of A. C. Gaines, last Tuesday night, and then fired the building to hide the evidence of their steady feeling was apparent in the trade. Millers have evinced an increased desire to crime. Six buildings were burned, and a large amount of property destroyed upon which there was no insurance. After the fire was operate, and it is probable that as soon as the Russian supplies cease prices may rally subdued, four negroes—two men and two women—were arrested for the robbery. COTTON GINNING.

HICKMAN'S GIN

THE Gin for the season. A great improvement.

Payne's Eclipse Gin and Huiler. Planters can save enough by picking their cotton rough, and getting it before it rots, to pay for the Gin. It will Gin Rougher Cotton than is possible to gin on the ordinary gin. Planters having large crops yet in the field, that must necessarily be lost unless it is picked in the roughest and quickest way, should not fail to try one of these Gins. For further particulars address B. W. HICKMAN, 666 Main street, opp. Miss. and Tenn. Depot. Memphis, Tenn.
